Because the information economy requires well-educated workers, higher education is critical to helping Oregon move forward. The Portland State University Chapter of the American Association of University Professors and Oregon Conference of the American Association of University Professors is cosponsoring a Higher Education Legislative Candidates Forum. Come hear candidates share their thoughts on higher education in Oregon. There will be time at the end of the forum for audience members to ask questions. After the forum there will be a lobbying workshop with staff from Dave Barrows & Associates, PSU-AAUP's lobbyists.

Attendees are encouraged to bring a brown bag lunch.
