Carlos Aguirre and Robert Buffington, eds. Reconstructing Criminality in Latin America (Wilmington: Scholarly Resources, 2000)

Table of Contents

Robert Buffington, “Introduction: Conceptualizing Criminality in Latin America”
Sarah C. Chambers, “Crime and Citizenship: Judicial Practice in Arequipa, Peru, during the Transition from Colony to Republic”
Richard Warren, “Mass Mobilization versus Social Control: Vagrancy and Political Order in Early Republican Mexico”
Ricardo D. Salvatore, “The Crimes of Poor Paysanos in Midnineteenth-Century Buenos Aires”
Pablo Piccato, “Urbanistas, Ambulantes y Mendigos: The Dispute for Urban Space in Mexico City, 1890-1930”
Kristin Ruggiero, “Not Guilty: Abortion and Infanticide in Nineteenth-Century Argentina”
Katherine E. Bliss, “Guided by an Imperious, Moral Need’: Prostitutes, Motherhood, and Nationalism in Revolutionary Mexico”
Laura Kalmanowiecki, “Police, Politics, and Repression in Modern Argentina”
Alma Guillermoprieto, “Medellín”
Bibliographical Essay
Selected Filmography