Jerry Diethelm

Architect • Landscape Architect

Planning & Urban Design Consultant

Jerry is a professional planning and design consultant with multiple registrations and over 45 years of experience as a practicing architect, landscape architect, environmental advocate and teacher. He has been the founder and principal of two major professional offices and since 1981 has played a primary role in many important projects throughout Oregon.

Jerry's most recent projects include a home and garden on College Hill; the remodeling and site revisions for the Oregon Youth Authority Women's Correctional Facility in Albany; a proposal for the City of Eugene's Downtown Riverfront; a 50 acre Riverfront Plan for Glenwood, Oregon; siting studies for both Triad and Peace Health hospitals in Glenwood; a plan for the extension of Old Town Bandon, Oregon into its 25 acre Old Woolen Mill site; a Downtown Development Plan for Halsey, Oregon; and a Riverfront Open Space Plan for Canby, Oregon. Other projects in the Eugene-Springfield metropolitan area include: A Downtown Plan for Springfield; The Springfield Centennial Fountain; The Redesign of Springfield's Main St.; North Bank, South Bank and Ferry St. Corridor studies as lead land use and urban design consultant (and CAC facilitator) for the City of Eugene; the site planning and landscape architecture for the south campus expansion of the U of O's Knight Library; including Library Gate and Court on Kincaid St.

Jerry is the author of numerous articles on design theory, and writes a regular column, Design Matters, on local planning and design issues for the Eugene Weekly. He is a past President of the City Club of Eugene. As Chair of the Emerald Waterways Citizens Committee Inc., he has been a committed community advocate for open space, waterway, wetland, and Millrace enhancement in our metropolitan region. He taught landscape architecture and architecture in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts at the University of Oregon from 1970-2005.
