

Gregory Min Bae

1306 East 18th Avenue,
Eugene, OR 97401
Cell (541) 914-4973
gbae@gladstone.uoregon.edu

EDUCATION

University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon

- B.S., Economics, Political Science, Spring 2003. Entering graduate school, Economics, Fall 2003.
- Recipient, University of Oregon's Full Tuition Diversity Building Scholarship, General University Scholarship, OMA Excellence Award and Greek Life Service Award. Mortar Board Member.

SKILLS

Languages: English, Korean and conversational Japanese

Computer Related: Proficient in MS Office Suite, Adobe Photoshop 6, Illustrator 9, statistics/econometrics packages (EViews 4, SPSS, Stata 7, Minitab), networking & digital photography

EXPERIENCE

Software Consultant, Social Sciences Instructional Laboratory, University of Oregon, 2002

- Consulting currently, upper division economics student in statistical software package usage

Financial Analyst, Boeing Commercial Airplane Group – Summer Internship Program, 2001

- Assisted the Cost Management function of SM&P Finance Division in performing audits of actual and forecasted data. Extensive MC Access and Excel proficiency.
- Reconciled $20 million Cost Improvement (Lean) settlements through communication and research-intensive audit.
- Assisted in developing Boeing supply chain flowcharts for the implementation of the duty drawback program.
- Offered a full-time position contingent upon graduation from the University of Oregon

Resource Coordinator, Programs Coordinator, Multicultural Center, UO, 2000-2002

- Organized events that addressed American cultural, ethnic and social realities, such as the Dr. Coleman Speakers Conference, a week long speakers-event
- Managed the Multicultural Center's budgetary, employment and volunteer resources

Content Development, Accountant, WetDawg.com Start-up Internet Company, 2001

- Developed content for start-up web site specializing in water-sports and adventure travel
- Established partnerships with online retailers and travel agencies to align site's administrative backend to increase efficiency in commission tracking for references
- Developed accounting process and financial forms for this new company

Treasurer, Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity, 2000-2001

- Chaired the Chapter Finance Committee, creating and maintaining a quarterly budget of $15,000
- Delegated tasks to members as the Finance Committee chair and manager of all chapter finances

US Marine Corps Officer Candidate, Quantico, VA, Summer 2000

- Commissioning as lieutenant contingent upon graduation from University of Oregon and completion of the second cycle of Officers Candidate School
- Demonstrated leadership at USMC Officer Candidate School, completing 2nd in class physically
- Adapted to hostile environment through teamwork and communication with peers.