This course explores the history of German cinema from the perspective of the German-Jewish experience. Students will be broadly introduced to German history in the 20th century and gain an understanding of the ongoing importance of the Jewish people for that history.

All films shown with English subtitles.

Wednesdays
16 - 18:20 or 19 - 21:20