ABOUT TONIGHT'S ARTIST

Toby Koenigsberg is assistant professor of jazz piano and associate director of jazz studies at the University of Oregon. He has performed throughout the United States, including in New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, California, Nevada, Texas, Wisconsin, Oregon, Washington, and Puerto Rico, as well as in Alberta and Ontario in Canada, in Paris, France, and in Japan. He has performed with such jazz musicians and ensemble leaders as Marian McPartland, Eddie Gomez, Rich Perry, Ben Monder, and Bill Holman. He tours with the Toby Koenigsberg Trio, performing at the Rochester International Jazz Festival, Jazz Festival Calgary, the Tony Williams Jazz Festival, the Portland Jazz Festival, the Knitting Factory in New York City, and elsewhere. His most recent CD, Sense (Origin Records), garnered praise from Cadence, the All Music Guide, and All About Jazz, among other publications, and has received airplay on dozens of radio stations throughout the United States. His first CD, Push, features Koenigsberg with saxophone great Rich Perry. Koenigsberg has been honored by the National Foundation for Advancement in the Arts, and while attending the Eastman School of Music he received the Schirmer Award, given to the most outstanding graduate jazz performer in a graduating class. This winter, Koenigsberg will perform at the Sibelius Academy in Helsinki, Finland and the Royal Academy of music in London, England. Koenigsberg has recorded and is working on the release of his third CD, a mix of straight-ahead jazz piano trio and solo jazz piano performances.
