

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON CHORAL PROGRAM

The University of Oregon choral program provides a dynamic and enriching environment for choral musicians of all ability levels. Consistently promoting choral excellence while fostering a sense of community, each season, hundreds of singers - both music majors and non-majors alike - form five choirs to study and perform a diverse body of outstanding choral repertoire:

Chamber Choir, directed by Sharon J. Paul, is a highly select mixed chamber ensemble specializing in a cappella repertoire. Chamber Choir has performed at the American Choral Directors Association's Northwest Division Conference, the Music Educators National Conference's Northwest Convention, and the Oregon Music Educators Association's State Conference.

Concert Choir, directed by Webb Parker, is a non-auditioned mixed choral ensemble that explores multicultural and world music. Concert Choir welcomes new members every term.

Repertoire Singers performs choral works from all styles and periods and serves as a recital and laboratory chorus for the graduate students in conducting.

University Singers, directed by Sharon J. Paul, is the premier large choral ensemble on campus, with a choral tradition at the University of Oregon extending back to 1945. The University Singers perform choral music from all periods and styles, and frequently collaborate with other music ensembles on campus and throughout the community.

Women's Choir, directed by Christopher S. Olin, is a select chamber ensemble that places emphasis on performing new works composed for women's voices.

The intensive training provided by the choral program complements the core curriculum of the School of Music and Dance, and balances the broad spectrum of liberal arts disciplines offered at the University. Each ensemble serves the needs of vocal musicians from diverse backgrounds by programming repertoire of the highest quality. The choirs make their home in the state-of-the-art MarAbel B. Frohnmayer Music Building and regularly concertize in historic Beall Concert Hall. Auditions are held every autumn during the Week of Welcome and are open to all University students.

Timete Dominum

Timete Dominum omnes sancti ejus
Fear the Lord, all ye his saints Quoniam nihil deest timentibus eum
for there is no want to them that fear Him Inquirentes autem Dominum they that seek the Lord shall not be non deficient omni bono.
Deprived of any good.
Alleluia.
Alleluia.

Magnificat

*My soul magnifies the Lord,
and my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour;
For he has regarded the lowliness of his handmaid;
behold, henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.
Because He who is mighty has done great things for me,
and holy is His name;
And His mercy is from generation to generation,
on those who fear Him.
He has shown might with His arm,*

*He has scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart.
He has deposed the mighty from their seats,
and has exalted the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with good things,
and the rich He has sent away empty.
He has given help to Israel, His servant, mindful of His mercy -- Even as he spoke to our fathers—to Abraham and to his posterity for ever.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now,
and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.*
