PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Research Associate at the University of Oregon, College of Education, Department of Special Education and Community Resources, 1997-present.

Currently working with Drs. Claudia Vincent, Jeffrey Sprague, Mark Van Ryzin, Michael Pavel (CHiXapkaid) and Graduate Teaching Fellow Joseph Hoover on a project titled "The Role of Native Language and Culture in Decreasing Discipline Problems and Increasing Academic Achievement for American Indian/Alaska Native Students" which is funded by an award from the U.S. Department of Education/Institute of Education Sciences. It is administered by the Institute on Violence and Destructive Behavior (IVDB).

Affiliated with Educational and Community Supports (ECS), under the direction of Dr. Robert Horner. Research interests include (a) culturally responsive interventions designed to promote learning for all students and to reduce disproportionate disciplinary exclusions of minority students; (b) the development of systems that can support educators in the provision of positive behavioral support at classroom, school, district, and state levels for students in both general and special education; and (c) patterns found in data bases of online surveys and school discipline records related to Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS).

Other Consulting, Evaluation, and Research Activities:

Participated in and successfully completed a training program on the National Indian Education Study (NIES) and the National Assessment of Educational Progress (NAEP) databases, presented June 28-30, 2011, in Arlington, VA, by the Institute for Educational Sciences (IES) and the National Center on Educational Statistics (NCES) of the U.S. Department of Education.

Served as the external evaluator for the Oregon Youth Development Project, a multi-site, randomized control trial involving 14 middle schools in Oregon. This Adolescent Family Life Demonstration Project under the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Grant No. 1 APHPA 006058-01-00, was awarded to Northwest Family Services and directed by Rose Fuller, 2008-2011. Eighth grade students participated through their public school health classes in a youth development intervention to prevent risky, unhealthy, and problem behaviors. Parents of students in the experimental group were provided with support and services that parents of students in the control group did not receive.

Served as the external evaluator for the Eugene School District Mentoring Project, U.S. Department of Education, Office of Safe and Drug-Free Schools, Grant No. Q184B070528, awarded to Eugene School District 4J, 2007-2010. The project provided a school-based mentoring program to improve outcomes for students at risk of educational failure or delinquency. It was completed under the direction of Eliza Drummond.

Served as the external evaluator for two different Healthy Marriage Initiative educational programs provided in high schools and in community organizations:

(1) U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Grant No. 90FE0091, awarded to the Longview Wellness Center in Longview, Texas: VOW, Marriage Education, directed by Tonya Waite, 2006-2011.

(2) U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Grant No. 90AE0160, awarded to Northwest Family Services in Portland, Oregon, Healthy Relationship and Marriage Education, directed by Rose Fuller, 2006-2011.

Served as a Research Associate for Oregon Behavior Center's study of the effects of a three tiered approach to school-wide positive behavior support on academic and behavioral outcomes over time for young students in elementary school, the "Tracking Study" part of the K-3 Behavior and Reading Prevention Initiative. Funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Office of Special Education Programs, Award #H324X010015 to the University of Oregon, 2003 – 2007.

Worked with Brigid Flannery and George Sugai on a grant from the Office of Special Education Programs, U.S. Department of Education (H324D020031) to study Positive Behavior Support in high schools (2002-2006).

Affiliated with Functional Behavioral Assessment research directed by Dr. Deanne Crone of the University of Oregon's School Psychology Department (1999-2002).

FUNDED GRANT ACTIVITIES

Northwest Youth Empowerment Demonstration Grant Program. (Grant No. 1 YEPMP060015-01-00). Youth Empowerment Demonstration, Office of Minority Health, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, $744,496. 2006-2009. Principal Investigator. This demonstration project involves after-school and summer programs for Latino youth in three urban middle schools. It was designed to provide opportunities to learn positive lifestyles and to enhance capacity to make healthy life choices.

Comprehensive Pre-Service Training in Positive Behavior Supports: Meeting the Needs of Students with High-Incidence Disabilities. (Grant H325H030070). Personnel Preparation Grant, Office of Special Education Programs, U.S. Department of Education. $800,000. 2003-2007. Principal Investigator (with Emma Martin, Ph.D.). This project trained pre-service teachers for both general and special education to support all students who present behavior challenges.

Project FIVE: Functional Interventions in Versatile Environments: Classroom, School-Wide, and District. (Grant No. H324C020051). Field Initiated Grant, Office of Special Education Programs, U.S. Department of Education. $539,987. 2002-2006. Project Co-Director (with Teri Lewis-Palmer, Ph.D.). This research examined how school environments may be versatile or “turned around” for students at-risk for school failure when teachers and other school staff implement function-based supports and develop systems to facilitate (a) early identification, (b) function-based assessments, (c) teamwork in planning behavioral support, and (d) data-based decision-making.

Using Teamwork to Plan Systematic and Functional Environments for Students with Emotional and Behavioral Disorders (Grant No. HO23N80024).
