

III. Specific Major Requirements

N.B.: Students anticipating majoring in Music Education should seek council from a Music Education faculty member as soon as possible. Once students are accepted as Music Education Majors, they will each be assigned a music education faculty member as their advisor.

FORMAL ADMISSION TO THE DEGREE PROGRAM:

Submit formal application to the Music Education faculty and complete audition and an interview with the faculty. See a Music Education faculty member to obtain the application materials. Undergraduate transfer students must apply during spring term of sophomore year or after one term in residence, and must pass the Theory Proficiency Exam before applying. A B- or higher in MUE 326 (Foundations of Music Education), which is typically taken in the spring quarter of the sophomore year or during the final term of core music studies, is required for admission.

PERFORMANCE STUDIES AND ENSEMBLES: A minimum of 18 credits of performance studio is required, as detailed below. Pass a minimum of 3 terms at or above the MuP 300-level (341-361) in Studio Instruction and a minimum of 12 different terms in appropriately-assigned ensemble is required.

MuP 341-361 – Studio Instructions: Term _____ Grade _____ | Term _____ Grade _____ | Term _____ Grade _____

Instrumental Option: Only standard band or orchestral instruments may be used to fulfill this requirement. Voice, piano, organ, recorder, harp, and guitar may not be used to fulfill this requirement. Instrumental Option students must pass a minimum of 3 terms at or above the MuP 300-level on their primary instrument.

Choral or General Music Options: Only piano or voice may be used to fulfill this requirement. Choral and General Music Option students must pass a minimum of 3 terms at or above the MUP 300-level on piano or voice. Students whose primary performance medium is piano must also pass three terms of 200-level Studio Voice. Students whose primary performance medium is voice must also pass three terms of 200-level Studio Piano. Students pursuing the General Music Option may substitute guitar performance for piano.
