

7 January 2010

To: UO Faculty and other interested parties
From: Robert Melnick, Chair
Conflict of Commitment Working Group
Subject: DRAFT Report for Review and Comment

Last academic year Academic Affairs and the UO Senate President appointed a joint working group to consider issues pertaining to conflict of commitment and make policy recommendations about how these issues should be handled on this campus.

The members of the working group are: John Bonine, School of Law; Ron Bramhall, Lundquist College of Business; Mike Bullis, College of Education; Moira Kiltie, Office of Vice-President for Research and Graduate Studies; Robert Z. Melnick, Department of Landscape Architecture (chair); Larry Singell, College of Arts and Sciences; Christine Theodoropoulos, Department of Architecture; Lisa Wolverton, Department of History.

We have completed our draft report and are seeking comment from a broad cross section of the university community.

The Draft Report is attached to this memo. We invite you to read it and provide feedback to the working group at the following email address:

<coccomm@uoregon.edu>

In accordance with state law, responses will be made publically available. We would appreciate your response by January 31, 2010.

Thank you very much.