View and discuss Scandinavian cinematic representations of children, teenagers, young adults, and outsiders.

Explore how the construction of childhood and of “the teenager” in popular culture inflects both our own experiences and those of young people in Scandinavia.

May be applied to Arts & Letters and the International Cultures requirement.