Season's Greetings 2010

Solve the CLUES (A through CC on the other page), then transfer each letter (e.g., L-148) to the corresponding square in the GRID (148-L). Work both directions, using "guessed" words in the grid to fill in parts of other clues.

Bonus prize: The first column of clue-blanks (reading downward) reveal the title of the story the quote was drawn from. The author was Mrs. W. H. Corning, and her story appeared in A Budget of Christmas Tales, 1895.
