

Holidays should be like this,
Free from overemphasis,
Time for soul to stretch and spit
Before the world comes back on it.

[Epilogue,] for W.H. Auden
[1936]

By:

Louis MacNeice (1907 – 1963)

According to Google/Wikipedia: Frederick Louis MacNeice was an Irish poet, playwright and producer for the BBC. Known for its exploration of introspection, empiricism, and belonging, his poetic work is now considered among the twentieth century's greatest.
